

FUTURE WORLD LEADERS - MINI UN

Saint Peter's University

14-19 years

Designed according to the United Nations structure, this innovative 2-week program develops student knowledge of debate, government, teamwork, leadership, and international relations. Students will work together in small groups to form their own government and structures, and try to sustain their countries through UN-related global issue scenarios.

The goal is to maintain peace and stability while solving each scenario. In the end, students receive a "Specialty Certificate" and individual awards are given to top participants.
